

CHRIS SIMMANCE

The Neo-Futurist International Keynote Speaker

“The Future Belongs to The Curious”

In this powerfully thought provoking keynote, your people will see that change is an inevitable and unavoidable part of life, and – on the whole – the world is actually a far better place because of it.

Engaged by Chris’s generous helping of humour, they will experience powerful myth busting stories and surprising statistics that will get them to open up to the incredible possibilities the future holds. Your audience will be left smiling and thinking “the future is actually looking kind of awesome, I want some of that, let’s go!” And they’ll then be less resistant to change in your business, and far more open to whatever innovation drive or change programme you need them to embrace.

All with a smile on their faces!

The net result is that you and your people confidently stride into the future with a positive view on change that drives innovation and keeps your business ahead of the curve, growing and adapting for the long term.

“Chris is an entertaining, enthusiastic and informative speaker, who manages to fully engage the audience. Even with knowledge on the topic, I was furiously scribbling down notes during his presentation on site speed optimisation.”

Nick Wilsdon, Search Product Owner, Vodafone Group Plc

“More knowledge of how the internet works in his little finger than Brin, Page and Zuckerberg combined. See him now. Or don’t, and see sales suffer.”
